Ont.

Dear Dr. Burlleigh:

Find attached a letter I had from Mr. Edwin Huff of N.J. who is a trustee of the N.J. Genealogical Society. We often hear many an argument over whether the Huffs are all of the same origin or are Huguenots. I have yet to find a firm basis for the claim that Huffs are Huguenots. We can recognize the origin of the Ruttans, Demorests, etc., but not the Huffs. I doubt at times if Ryersons are of Huguenot origin. Note that one Methodist history describes Egerton Ryerson as being of Danish descent. Mr. Huff has attached a hand-written page to his letter which bears the preface: "From 'Missing Links' published by Chedwato Service P.O. Box 746, Burlington, Vermont". Added to this is "Mrs Erwin E. Davis, 54 Genesee Ave., Elgin, Illinois, 60121". I don't know what the significance of her name is to the information. The account is as follows and I cannot make out the writing so there could be mistakes:

Krankheight - Crankeyt Cronkhight- Cronkhite - Cronk

Jacob Cronkhite m. 2nd wife Dec. 15, 1713, at Sleepy Hollow, N.Y. Helena Brent a son Teunis mentioned born 1721.

Son of Teunis - Abraham<sup>I</sup> b. 1743 - m. June 24, 1762 at Poughkeepsie, N.Y., to Lavinia Huff. He was a Royalist and died March 1818 at Sophiasburg, Ontario, Canada - 3 daus. 6 sons.

applied for land as settlers 12 June 1797. Abraham Sr. drew 200 acres plus 600 acres family lands, & the sons

I assume that Mr. Huff wishes to point out that Cronk drew 200 and Cronkhight or Cronkheytt are the same name. Both exist in Ontario and each Cronk has been spelled "Krank". The information of this nature, the settler in Sophiasburg could be of some interest to us.

Douglas Sprague a great great grandson of Paul Huff U.E.L. settler on the south shore of Hay Bay in 1784, conducted a lengthy research into the origin and descendants of the Huguenot ancestors of the Huff family

The first known Huff came to America prior to 1707, in the person of Engelbert Huff, a Norwegian member of the Life Guards of William of Orange, who became King William III of England

Soon after his arrival in America he married Maria (Maritie) Willems born about 1690 at Tarrytown, N.Y., to Robert Willems Zen and Grace (Greesze) Cerant (believed to have been the early spelling of Ceniff or Canniff). Engelbert Huff died at the ripe old age of 128 years on March 21st 1765 at Fishkill, N.Y., and was buried near the east wall of the Reformed Dutch Church at nearby Hopewell.

The known family of Engelbert and Maria:-

Greesze 1708, married Zibout Crancheyt; Leonhardt 1709, married 1) Pheoebe Ferris, 2) Cornelia VanTassel; Maria 1712; William 1714, married Elizabeth Retan; Ann Margareta 1716; Helena 1717; Mara 1724; Johannis 1726; Abraham 1729.

The family of William and Elizabeth Retan Huff:-

Paul; Solomon; John; Angus; (and possibly a daughter Angel)

Byron M. Wylie another great great grandson of Solomon Huff, U.E.L., younger brother of Paul Huff, claims to have uncovered a record showing that Solomon Huff came with his wife and six eldest children to Canada immediately after the July 4th 1776 Declaration of Independence, making his way overland to Fort Frontenac (Kingston), thence the following summer to 4th Town (Adolphustown) and there "squatted" on land close by the bay shore.

The foregoing paragraph is at variance with other historical accounts of the coming to Canada of the two (Paul and Solomon) Huff families, as set out in the following manner

Lieut. Paul Huff served with the Loyalists in Colonel Horton's company. He was officially mustered out at Kingston in October 1784. With his wife (whose name is not available) and at least ~~five~~ of their ~~ten~~ children, Paul Huff left New York in the fall of 1783 aboard ship for refuge in Canada. They spent a very discouraging winter at Sorel, Quebec, came through to Kingston in the spring and finally arrived at Adolphustown June 16th 1784. Their party was under direction of Major Peter VanAlstine. Their family were:
Solomon 1769-1842; William ; James 1774-1840; Charles; Elizabeth.
Their genealogy follows;

Solomon Huff 1751-1828 was married to Eva Swade 1757- in close proximity to the present site of New York City. At the outbreak of the War of 1766-1783 Solomon is reported to have owned and operated a farm of 200 acres on land now a part of that great city. Unlike his brothers, Solomon was a neutral until a rebel raiding party pillaged his farm and property. He then joined the British troops and served through the duration. It is said he procured an old bald-faced horse which helped him to remove his family and goods to Kingston, later proceeding to Adolphustown, where he drew a lot on Hay Bay shore but exchanged it for one in the second concession in order to remain in 4th Town. The family of Solomon and Eva were: Jane; Elizabeth; William; Catharine; Sarah; Richard; Mary; Peter; Solomon.

Their genealogy follows:

U. E. hint notes that Solomon, Sr., came in in 1788

Family Tree of

William Huff & Descendants

1685--1943.

This pedigree, which appears to be based upon that appearing in "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte," is at variance with the recent investigations of Douglas Sprague, a descendant. There is good reason to believe that Mr. Sprague's record of the early Huffs is correct, seeing that the family tree, as prepared by Mrs. McLaughlin, states that William Huff, who came to America in 1685, was the father of Solomon Huff, born in 1751, and Paul Huff, the U. E. Loyalists. If this is true, William was at least 66 years of age at the birth of Solomon, his son.

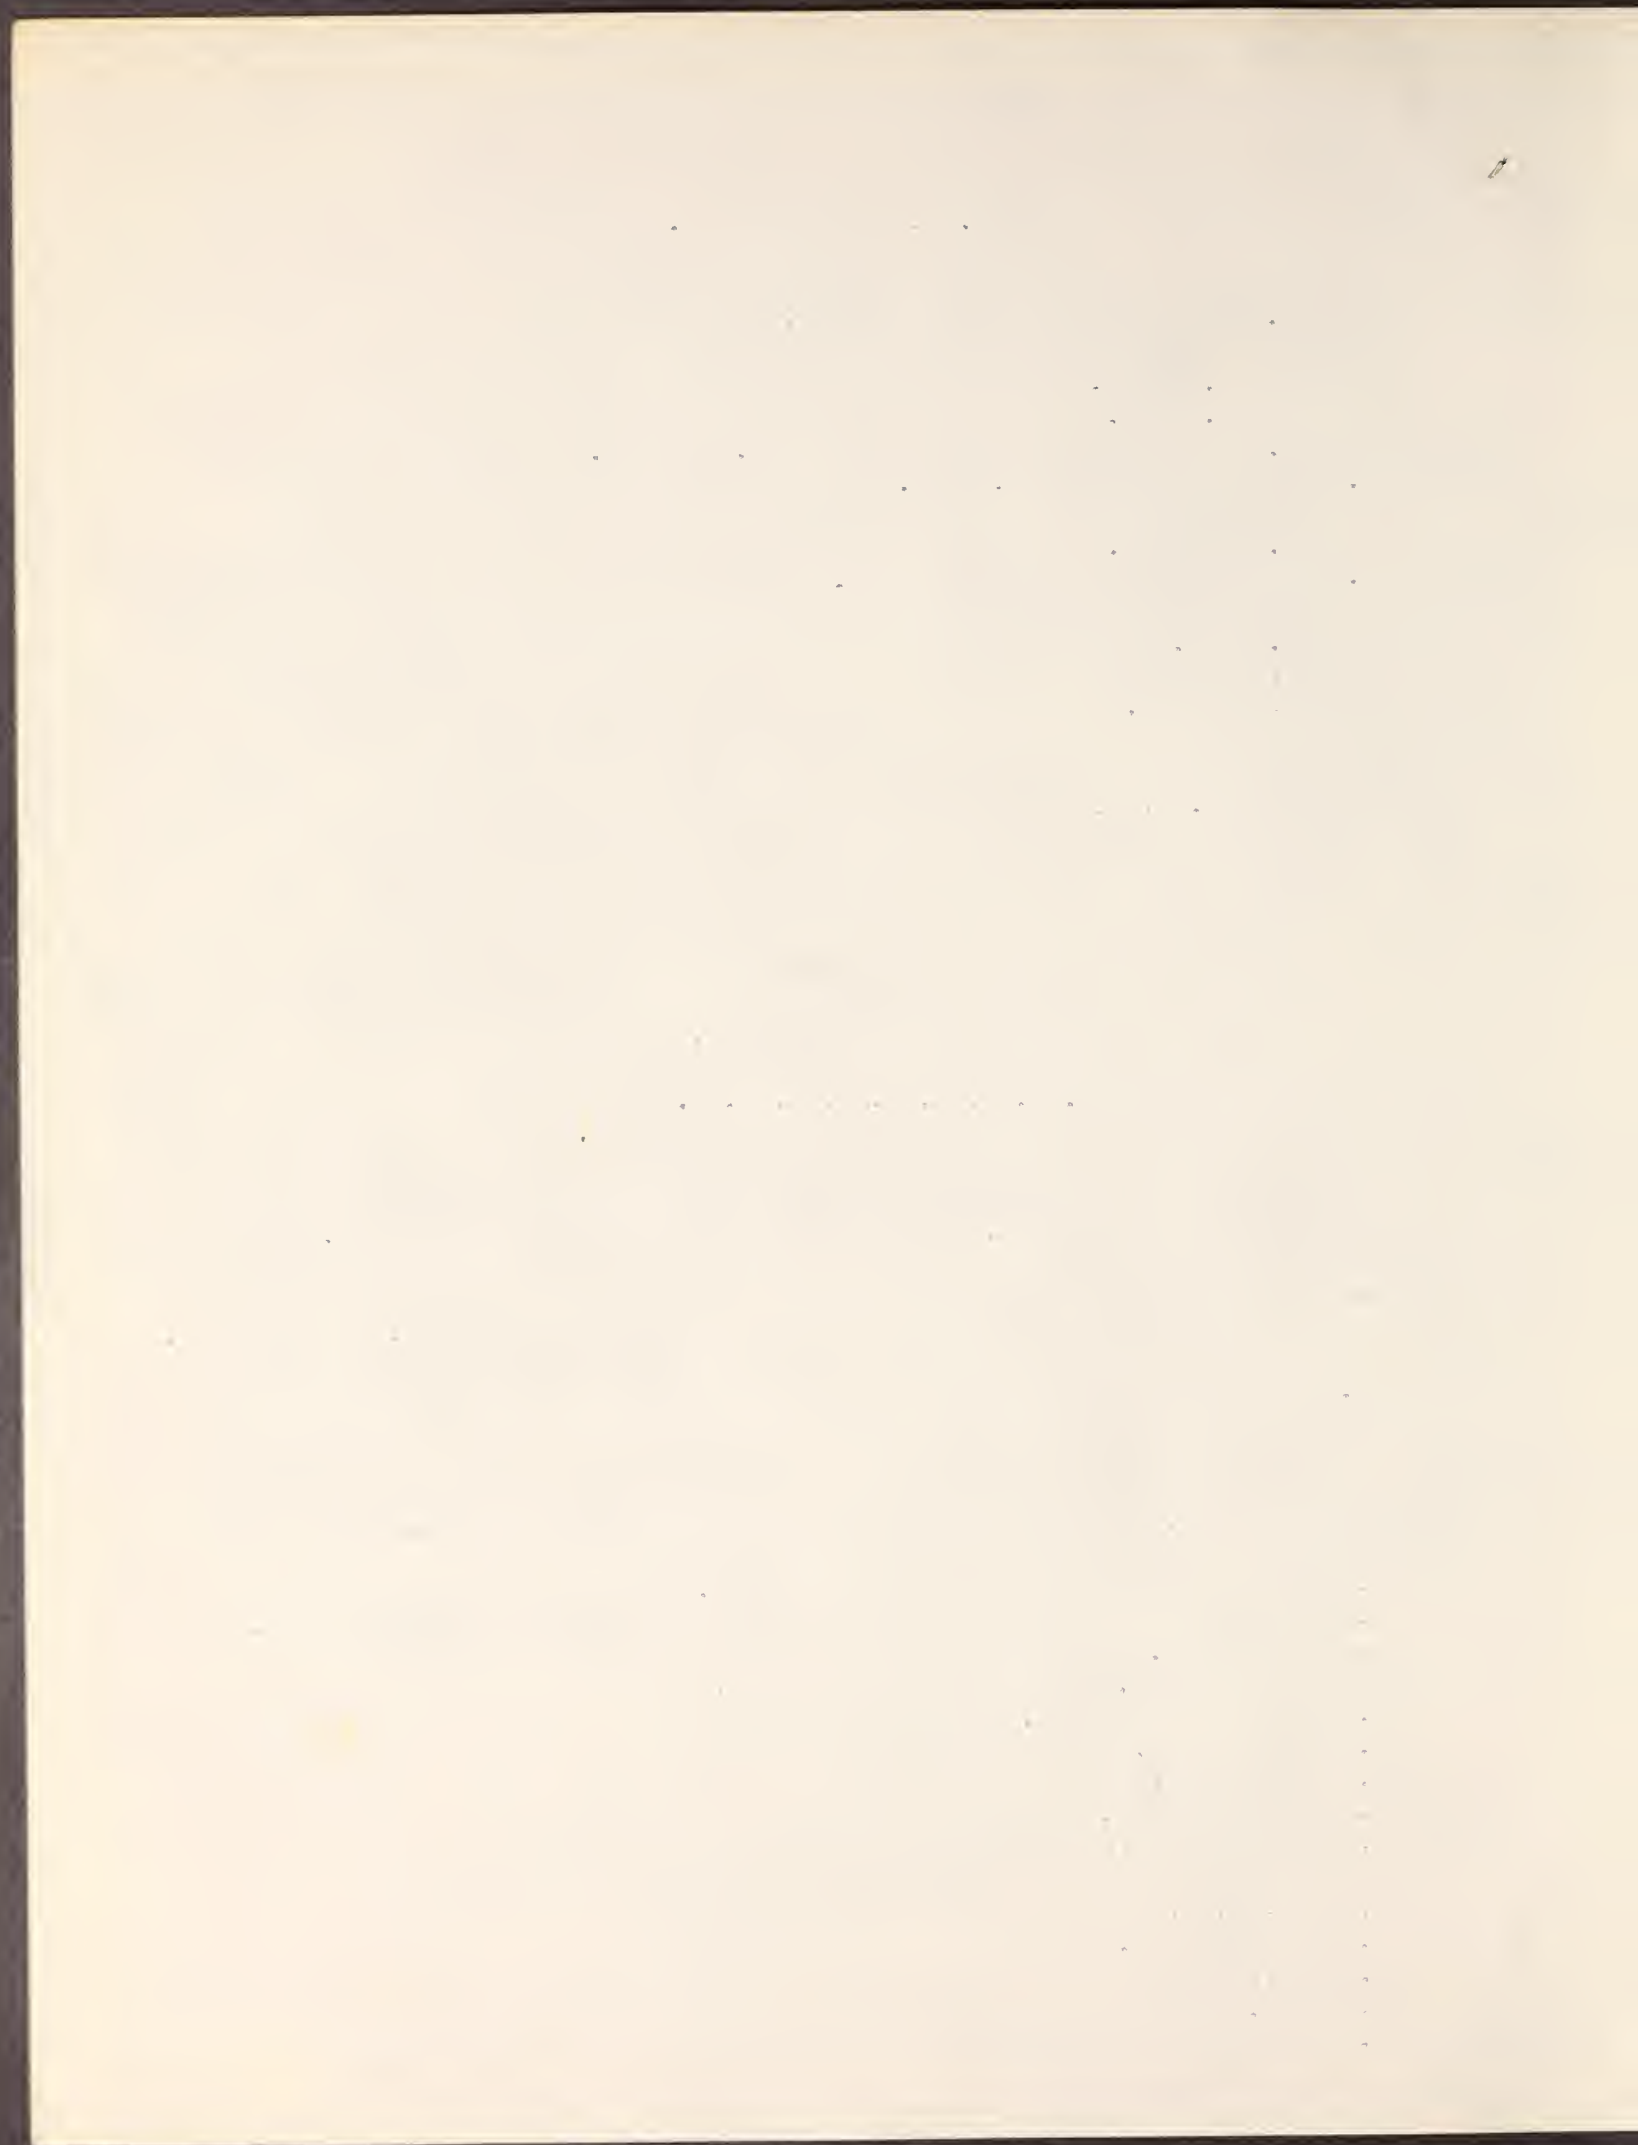

Douglas Sprague states that

Engelbert Huff, the first of the name, came to America prior to 1707. Soon after his arrival he married Maria Willems, daughter of Robert Willems Zen and Greesze Gerant. Engelbert died March 21, 1765, aged 128 years. His children were:

- 1. Greesze, 1708, married Zibout Cranchwyt.
- 2. Leonhardt, 1709, married 1st Phoebe Ferris, 2nd Cornelia Van Tassel.
- 3. Maria, 1712.
- 4. William, 1714, married Elizabeth Retan.
- 5. Ann Margareta, 1716.
- 6. Helena, 1717.
- 7. Maria, 1724.
- 8. Johannis, 1726.
- 9. Abraham, 1729.

Abraham and Elizabeth (Retan) Huff were the parents of

- 1. Paul, U. E.
- 2. Solomon, U. E.
- 3. John.
- 4. Angus.
- 5. And possibly a daughter, Angel

Dear Mr. Benson:

I believe it would be easier to answer this question: "Where didn't the Huffs come from???" My own line stems from an immigrant to New Amsterdam in 1651. He signed his will Paulus Dircks--sometimes this appears as Dirksen--patronymic in either event, and never used the name Hoff at all. His son, Derrick Pauluszen appears in Flusing, L.I., N.Y., and is called eldest son in father's will of 1688; proved 1692. However when he reached N.J. he was using the name Derrick Hoff. His eldest son had preceded him here - Pieter, and he used but one "F" spelling it "Hof". Most of his grandsons entered Revolutionary War service as "Huff".

This immigrant, Paulus Dircks, first wife was Geertje Willemsse, secondly he married Jannetje Jans. The son Derrick first married Eechjie Teunis (Covert); secondly, Sara Willems Jeets (Yates). Derrick had a brother Paulus bap. 3 Nov. 1655, whom I believe went up the Hudson and left progeny in and about Kingston, N.Y. The fact that this family used Patronymics is a fair indication they were of Holland Dutch extraction. When the British took New York in 1664 one of the problems was the lack of family names--especially on land transactions. If a father had six married sons they undoubtedly could have had Petersons, Johnsons, Tunisons, Dircksoms, Albertsons, Rulogsons--all first cousins--and all his grandchildren. I believe about 1700 it was compulsory to adopt a surname and stick to it.

Almost of the same period came Laurens Jurianse to New Amsterdam--he was born in Brazil, S.A., then a Dutch Colony--many of his progeny spell the name "Haff" on Long Island, N.Y., but here in N.J. it became "Hoff" and "Huff".

I have Elmer Hough's book on his family. They stem from a Richard Hough, intimate of William Penn and Member of his Council. He was naturally an English Quaker but this book believes the family originated in South Holland and came into England at the time of William the Conqueror. Others believe they came into England with the Norman Invasion. Saying the name was De La Hough.

My own theory is this: There is a small village in Germany named "Hof"--that near the close of the Thirty Years War, my people fled into Holland--possibly could have been Norway or Denmark--thence over here ...this is pure conjecture.

Somewhere amongst my clippings I have a write-up concerning a Huff Family Reunion that was held in Michigan a number of years ago--most of the family, as I recall it, were living in Canada--seems sons were Paul and Royal--there were others.

I found the story of Englebert Huff some years ago in Benson J. Lossing's Pictorial Field Book of The American Revolution, Vol. #2, page 124, in which it mentions a silver tankard that was presented to Fishkill(N.Y.) Dutch Reformed Church by Samuel Verplanck "to commemorate Mr. Englebert Huff, by birth a Norwegian, in his life-time attached to the life guards of the Prince of Orange, afterward King William III of England. He resided a number of years in this country, and died, with unblemished reputation, at Fishkill, 21st of March, 1765, aged 128 years"

I believe there were descendants of the Palatine Immigration, Adam Hoff by name in and around Livingston Manor, N.Y., and possibly the present Governor of the State of Vermont, Philip Hoff, may be of that family.

Many of the New England Houghs descend from a William Hough who is believed to have come from the same area as did Richard of Pennsylvania.

Then you can go down into Virginia and find descendants of other English immigrants coupled with later families from this area. There have been several migrations from this area -- whole villages nearly transported themselves to Western Pennsylvania, later to Kentucky, Carolina and farther west and south. While there was yet a mass exodus to the "Lake Country" of New York State.

My Huff Grandparents were responsible for the Methodist Church here in Neshanic Station...the only one in this area that had for eons been a stronghold of the Dutch Reformed Congregations....must be of some kin.

Certainly nice to hear from you--but afraid I have only added to your confusion.

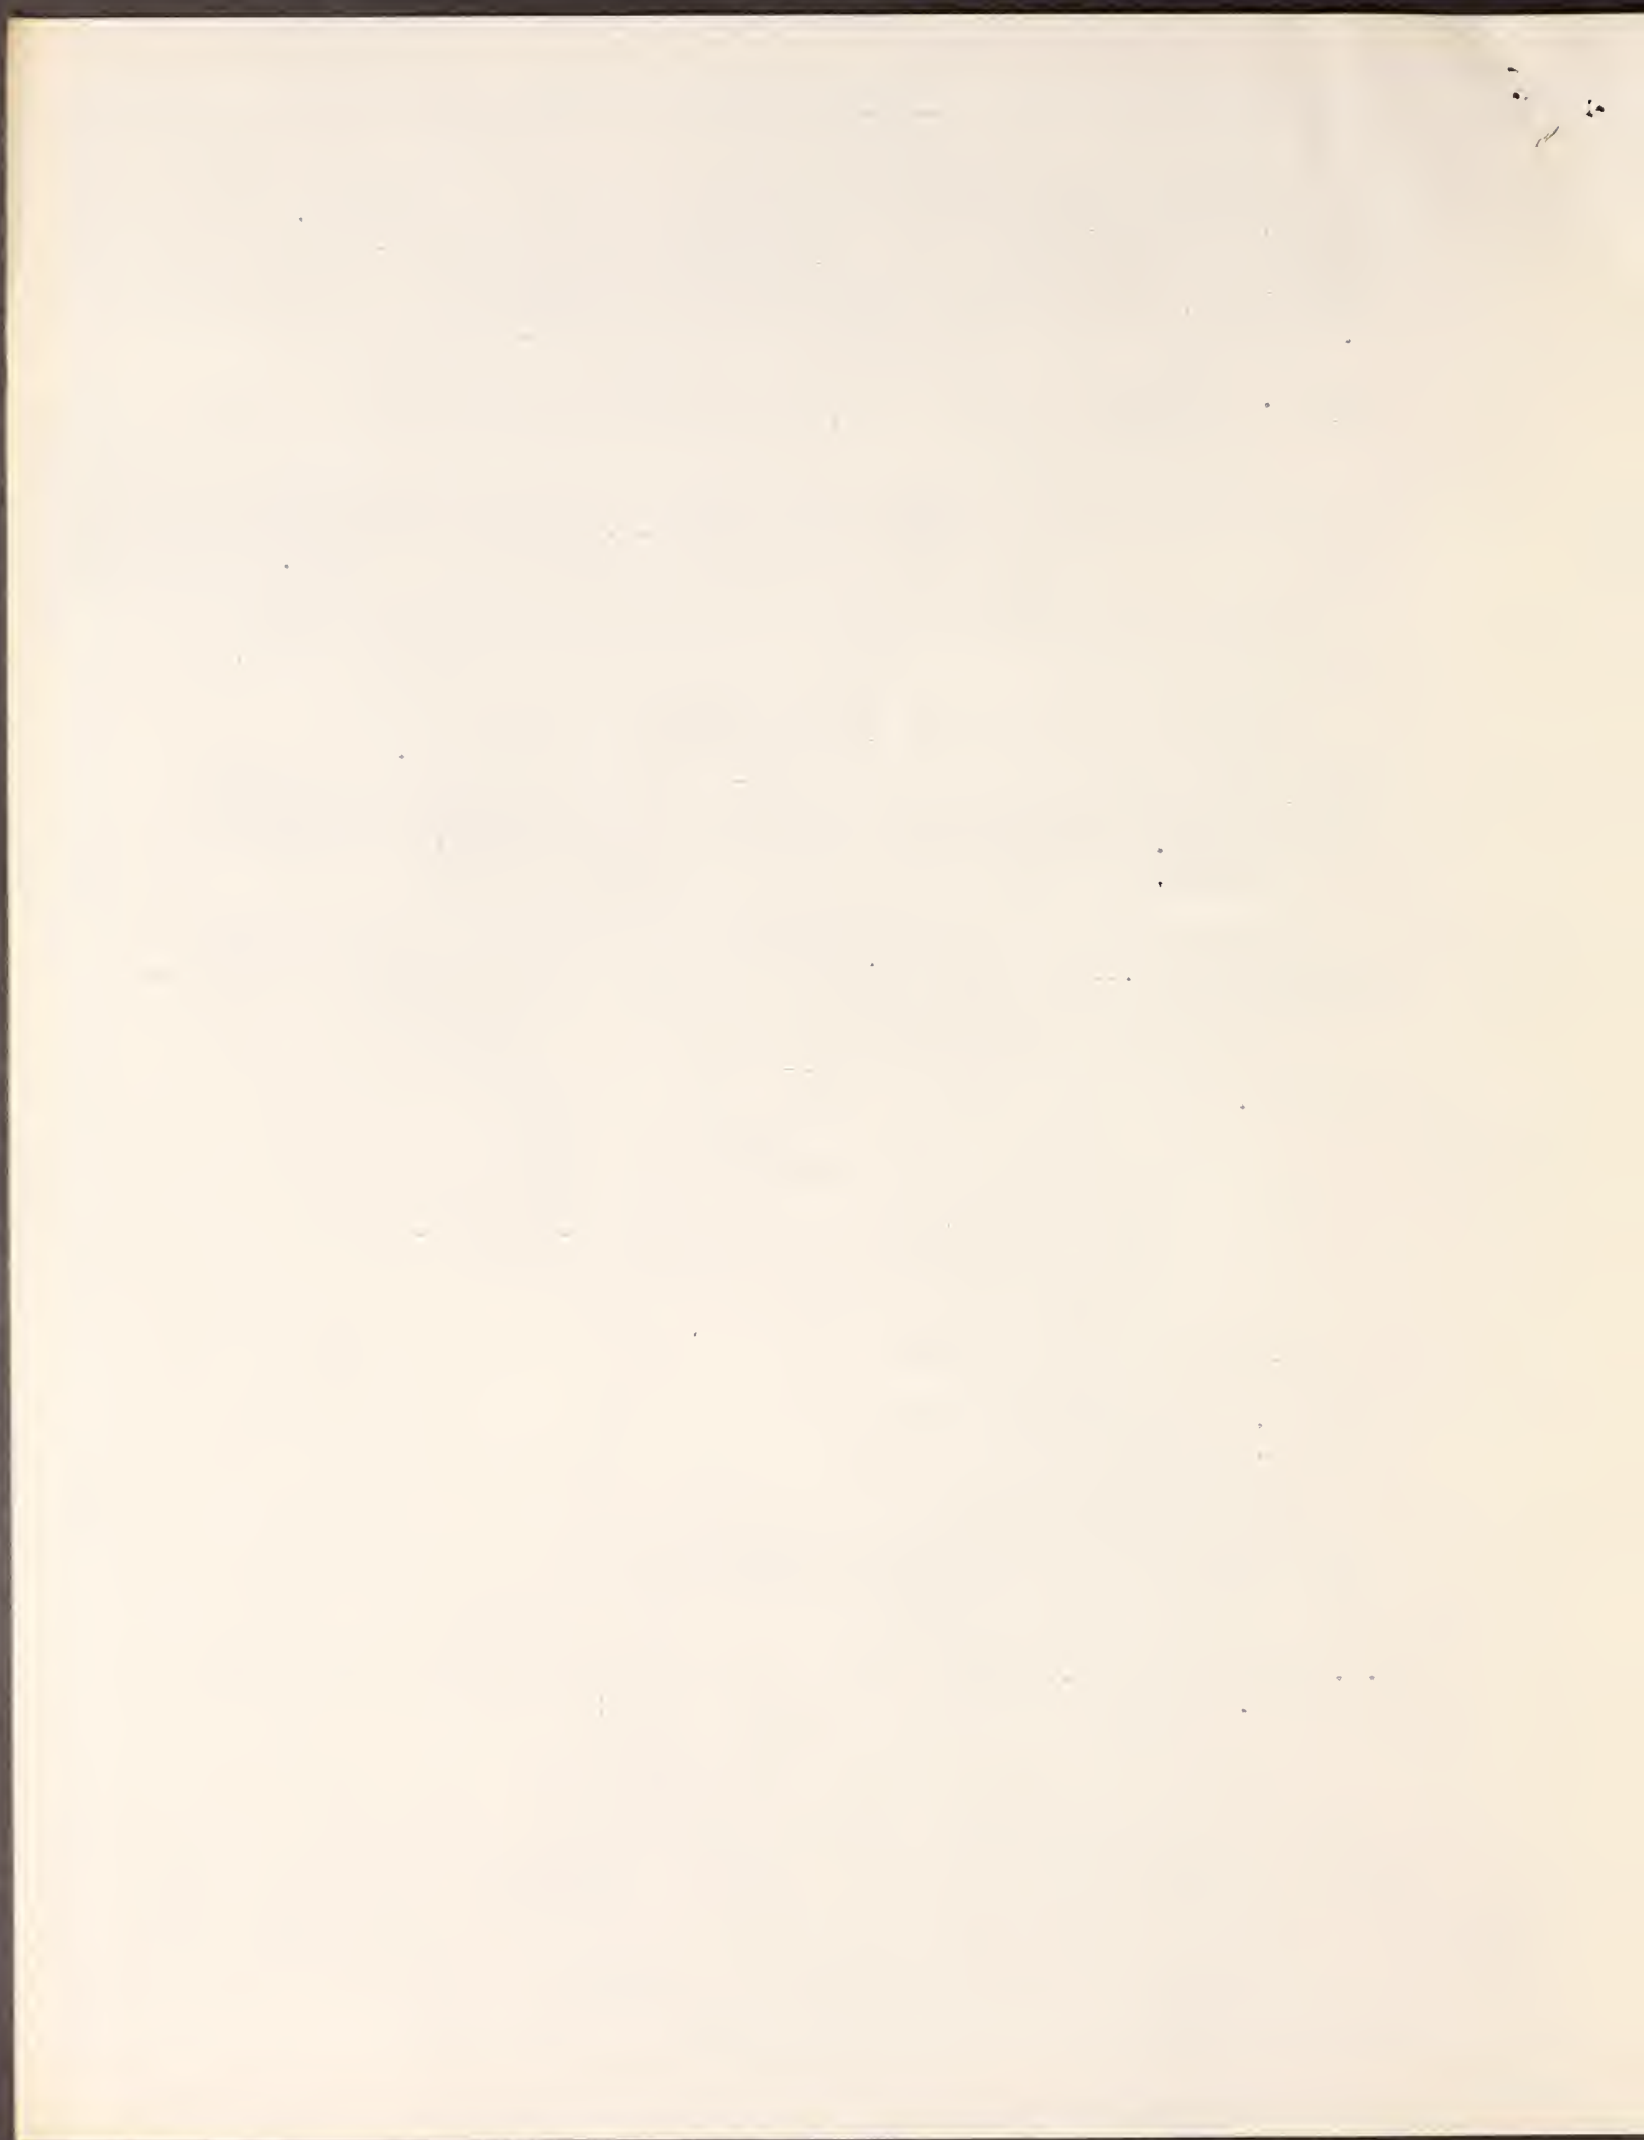

Sincerely,

Edwin W. Huff Jr.

Dear sir:

I had better reply to your letter while the details are fresh in my mind. I find that it is so very difficult to do so after a long lapse of time.

Firstly, I know nothing of Obadiah Huff. If, as you state, he was born in 1781, his name would have appeared in the Land Books if he were son of a Loyalist, as each such child was entitled to 200 acres of land on coming of age. It is, therefore, natural to assume that his father was a settler--one of the thousands of Americans who took advantage of Gov. Simcoe's invitation of 1792.

Secondly, the names of Henry and John Huff do appear in the U. S. List. I find them as Henry Huff, Home District Indian Department, S. G.--one woman. P. L. N. 1736.

John Huff ditto Indian Department, S. G.--Niagara Stamped Bk.

The Land Books of Ontario (the originals are in Public Archives, Ottawa) have these references to Henry and John Huff:

Henry Huff, July 6, 1796, praying for 500 acres of land. Granted.

Aug. 1, 1797, praying for military & family lands. Granted 300 acres, 500 acres as a sergeant.

John Huff, Aug. 29, 1797, praying for lands as a settler. granted 200 ac.

Nov. 16, 1797, do do family lands. Granted 200 acres.

The above seems to indicate that there were two Johns--one a soldier, the other a settler. Perhaps the soldier did die in 1792. As you may know, any man who wished to have his name on the U. S. List had to appear in the Court of Quarter Sessions, in 1796, and produce evidence that he joined the Royal Standard before 1783. If this be true, then John, the soldier, either did not die in 1792, or his family took steps to have his name placed on the List.

I suggest that you write to the Public Archives, asking for photostatic copies of these several petitions. They supply a good deal of information not otherwise available. The fee is nominal.

Thirdly, here is a list of children of Henry and John who applied for lands to which they were entitled:

Huff, Henry.

da. Catherine, wife of John Woolman of Niagara.

O.C. 21 Feb., 1807.

" Mary, wife of Jacob Boren of Matilda

" 13 Mar., 1807.

" Elizabeth, wife of Conrad Shaver

" 26 June, 1797.

Huff, John, of Maldinand Co.

son, Abraham, of Maldinand Co.

" 19 Apr., 1803.

da., Catherine, wife of Oliver Burnham of Maldinand Co.

" 11 " 1809.

son, John, of Cayuga

" 30 Nov., 1837.

da., Elizabeth, married, first, ----- Connor; second, John Norton of Mald. Co. " 6 Nov., 1829.

Fourthly, there were at least three distinct families using the name Huff, Hoff, or Hough. I have become familiar with them, as all three are found in the Bay of Quinte area. These are:

1. Hough, sometimes spelled Huff, and pronounced Huff. This family came from New York-Vermont border, and settled in Ernesttown, spilling over into Fredericksburgh. These include Benjamin, Barnabas and the latter's sons Bruin and John, and others.
2. Huff, pronounced Huff, Paul and Solomon, who came from New York in 1783. They settled in Adolphustown and spread over into Prince Edward County.
3. Hough, pronounced Hoke, John, who was with 2nd Batt., F. R. S. N. Y., and settled in Fredericksburgh. He was the John Hough who made the Loyalist Claim.

In this connection, it should be understood that other members of these families, brothers, cousins, nephews, parents, and widowed sisters very likely followed these Loyalists, particularly after Gov. Simcoe offered lands to any industrious, sober person who would take the oath of allegiance. This makes it easy to understand that, by 1800, these settlers outnumbered the Loyalists. And, likewise, easy to understand that many families called themselves Loyalists, in spite of the fact that their men had fought on the rebel side. I state my firm opinion that we are far too lax in admitting persons to membership because of a name.

Fifthly, I do not go along with the statement that Joseph Drant gave the Huffs that block of land. It was not his to give, but rather George III.

Sixthly, please remember that you might find three, or more, John Huffs all living at the same time in almost any community. In 1700, a John, born in 1765, would be John, Junior. In 1800, he would be John, senior. I learned this fact in the hard way. Old John Percy, an ancestor, had sons, John and Michael. Both these sons had sons John. So, in 1815, we had Old John, Young John, John's John, and Mike's John, as well as an infant called John III.

Seventhly, I might have something of interest in your Huff-Bright connection. As you may know, Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte gives very little on Paul Huff, U. E., except that he was father of Solomon, of Huff's Island. It looks like this:

Paul Huff, U. E.

Solomon of Buff's Id. b. 1763	Elizabeth aged 21 or more in 1807.	William Moore aged 21 or more in 1810	James b. 1774.	Charles

Bloomfield Lady 100 Today

Congratulations to Mrs. Herbert Brooks who reaches her 100th birthday on Friday, November 19th. Mrs. Brooks was the former Ida Maud Huff, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Huff and is the widow of the late Charles Herbert Brooks. She has lived her entire life in Prince Edward County and for the past 25 years has made her home in Bloomfield with her daughter, Mrs. Bert Walters and Mr. Walters. She has one other daughter, Mrs. Frank Kemsley of Picton and one son, Kenneth of Keswick, Ontario.

Except for hearing loss Mrs. Brooks is well and able to get around the house and assist with daily chores. She still knits and reads a little and enjoys television.

Friends wishing to call on Mrs. Brooks on this special birthday will be welcome at her home from 2 to 4 and from 7 to 8.30 p.m.

ective efforts to deal with noise in the proper category, the same as water and air pollution.

What Did the Voters Say?

By RALPH NOVAK

WASHINGTON (CEF)

The computers are whirring in their cool white rooms and the brains are straining in the stuffy smoke-filled ones, all laboring in a common cause: analyzing the results of the recent off-year elections.

It is always difficult to determine what meaning an off-year election has in terms of national politics, if it has any meaning at all. Does the election of a Democratic dog catcher in Kankakee, Ill., have anything to do with President Nixon's popularity? When the voters in Cleveland pick a Republican mayor, does it reflect poorly on Edmund Muskie's chances to become president?

This year, however, trying to make sense out of the results is like trying to sort out the pieces of 1,000 different jigsaw puzzles that were mixed up and dumped into a vat of glue.

The Democrats did well in Kentucky but the Republicans were successful in Ohio. A law-and-order mayoral candidate won in Philadelphia but another one lost in Boston. A black mayoral candidate was elected in Gary, Ind., but a black gubernatorial candidate lost in Mississippi. Voters approved a property tax increase in Dayton, Ohio, but in Durham County, N.C., a school bond issue was defeated. A 21-year-old was elected to the city council of Marshall, Minn., but an 18-year-old lost in a bid for a seat on San Francisco's Board of Supervisors.

Front and back lashes were flying all over the place, pro- and antigovernment, blacks, whites, youth, war and just about everything else except apple pie (motherhood and the flag have long since come under attack).

The obvious conclusion—that the results defy analysis—is both right and wrong. The analysis is that you can't analyze them, which is more meaningful than it sounds.

The key is that the nation's political blocs are in even more uncertain a state of flux than usual. Coalitions are forming (the blacks and youth, for instance), party ideologies are blurring (again) and politicians nationally are sparring as they try to find the issues that will be crucial next year, so that the number of influential interest groups is growing.

This is going to make it harder on the national candidates who may find it harder to get away with mounting glittering generalities when people are demanding answers on specifics. It is going to make it harder on the men behind the candidates who are trying to decide how to shape campaigns. And while it is not going to revolutionize the basic Democratic-Republican either-or choice, it is going to make things a little more difficult for the American voter who is trying to decide whom he wants to vote for.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

You may recall my mention of having in my possession the family records of Obadiah Huff which I inherited from my Grandmother Benson. The man's name has cropped up here in Toronto in relation to a local project to restore several old Methodist cemeteries in northern Toronto and to write an account of the part played by these pioneer folk in the early days of Upper Canada and York. The question of John Huff was first directed to Miss Kaye McFarland by Mrs. Milne of Toronto. John Huff is buried in one of these cemeteries and his death is listed as 1792 and that he came from the Brant district. Miss McFarland referred the matter to me and I have done a little digging on the project but I cannot find all the answers. A John and Hendrick (Henry) Huff or Hough received what is known as "The Huff Grant" in South Cayuga from Joseph Brant after having served in the Indian Dept. I cannot find these men on the U.E. List or U.E. Claims. The John Hough in U.E. Claims cannot be the same man. The Huff Grant is marked on the County Atlas of Wentworth County which was shown me by John Nelles a descendant of Major Henry Nelles who received a large grant on the Grand River for his services in the Mohawk Valley during the Revolution. The original cemetery in which Major Nelles was interred was desecrated some years ago and one of the Nelles salvaged the stone and took it to St. John's Anglican Church at York, just below Caledonia. Recently a ceremony was held to unveil a monument to Major Nelles in which the stone was imbedded. 300 of Nelles' descendants and members of the church attended. Now this Watson Huff of Toronto has told me that the Huffs left the Brantford district because several of them were killed by the Indians. Mrs. Brantmonture has told me that she has never heard of a white man being killed by Indians in the Grand River Valley. The only incident of hostility I know of is in one of the old histories of Brant County where some settler moved on land at Middleport used by one of the secret societies of the Long Hous Peoole and was manhandled. John Nelles states that he believes that Mr. Huff has confused two stories. He said that his Grandfather, the founder of Nelles' Corners, on the Reserve side of the River, had several kin killed by the Townsend Gang, and several of these thugs were executed for the crime. We now have a Townsend Centre and there are people by the same name in the area.

Not
John or

Mr. Watson Huff states that some of the Huffs settled at Jarvis and this is borne out by information given me by Mr. Merrill of Hamilton. John Huff was given 200 acres at York and he and Obadiah served in the War of 1812. John Huff was born in 1737 and Obadiah in 1781 which hardly makes them brothers. A William Huff of the same family settled in 1804 on the Toronto waterfront and founded the Wayside Inn. A Joseph settled on what is now Eglinton Ave., and an Erastus or Rastus settled in the south of Muddy York. Watson Huff said that there were two brothers, Andrew and James Huff, one R.C. and the other Methodist. The one who became an R.C. was cut off from the family for life and when the brothers met they fought. The story fits in with the one told me by the Merrills of how an R.C. Huff had been noted falling in front of a hay rake near Jarvis and being carried into town by the populace in a state of absolute drunkenness. Someone put an Orangeman's sash on him(it was the Glorious 12th)and he was left in the tavern with a drunken Orangeman.

The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory of differential equations. The second part is devoted to the construction of the solution. It is shown that the solution can be obtained by the method of variation of parameters. The third part is devoted to the study of the properties of the solution. It is shown that the solution is unique and that it satisfies the boundary conditions. The fourth part is devoted to the study of the stability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is stable with respect to the initial conditions. The fifth part is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solution. It is shown that the solution tends to zero as the independent variable tends to infinity. The sixth part is devoted to the study of the periodicity of the solution. It is shown that the solution is periodic with period  $2\pi$ . The seventh part is devoted to the study of the resonance of the solution. It is shown that the solution is in resonance with the external force. The eighth part is devoted to the study of the bifurcation of the solution. It is shown that the solution undergoes a bifurcation at a certain value of the parameter. The ninth part is devoted to the study of the chaos of the solution. It is shown that the solution exhibits chaotic behavior. The tenth part is devoted to the study of the ergodicity of the solution. It is shown that the solution is ergodic. The eleventh part is devoted to the study of the mixing of the solution. It is shown that the solution is mixing. The twelfth part is devoted to the study of the entropy of the solution. It is shown that the entropy of the solution is positive. The thirteenth part is devoted to the study of the information content of the solution. It is shown that the information content of the solution is infinite. The fourteenth part is devoted to the study of the complexity of the solution. It is shown that the complexity of the solution is high. The fifteenth part is devoted to the study of the predictability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is unpredictable. The sixteenth part is devoted to the study of the controllability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is controllable. The seventeenth part is devoted to the study of the observability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is observable. The eighteenth part is devoted to the study of the reachability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is reachable. The nineteenth part is devoted to the study of the stabilizability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is stabilizable. The twentieth part is devoted to the study of the detectability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is detectable. The twenty-first part is devoted to the study of the robustness of the solution. It is shown that the solution is robust. The twenty-second part is devoted to the study of the adaptability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is adaptable. The twenty-third part is devoted to the study of the flexibility of the solution. It is shown that the solution is flexible. The twenty-four part is devoted to the study of the scalability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is scalable. The twenty-fifth part is devoted to the study of the interoperability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is interoperable. The twenty-six part is devoted to the study of the portability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is portable. The twenty-seventh part is devoted to the study of the reusability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is reusable. The twenty-eighth part is devoted to the study of the modifiability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is modifiable. The twenty-ninth part is devoted to the study of the testability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is testable. The thirtieth part is devoted to the study of the maintainability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is maintainable. The thirty-first part is devoted to the study of the reliability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is reliable. The thirty-second part is devoted to the study of the security of the solution. It is shown that the solution is secure. The thirty-third part is devoted to the study of the privacy of the solution. It is shown that the solution is private. The thirty-four part is devoted to the study of the integrity of the solution. It is shown that the solution is intact. The thirty-fifth part is devoted to the study of the availability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is available. The thirty-six part is devoted to the study of the confidentiality of the solution. It is shown that the solution is confidential. The thirty-seventh part is devoted to the study of the non-repudiation of the solution. It is shown that the solution is non-repudiable. The thirty-eighth part is devoted to the study of the accountability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is accountable. The thirty-ninth part is devoted to the study of the auditability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is auditable. The fortieth part is devoted to the study of the transparency of the solution. It is shown that the solution is transparent. The forty-first part is devoted to the study of the openness of the solution. It is shown that the solution is open. The forty-second part is devoted to the study of the inclusiveness of the solution. It is shown that the solution is inclusive. The forty-third part is devoted to the study of the participation of the solution. It is shown that the solution is participatory. The forty-four part is devoted to the study of the collaboration of the solution. It is shown that the solution is collaborative. The forty-fifth part is devoted to the study of the cooperation of the solution. It is shown that the solution is cooperative. The forty-six part is devoted to the study of the synergy of the solution. It is shown that the solution is synergistic. The forty-seventh part is devoted to the study of the complementarity of the solution. It is shown that the solution is complementary. The forty-eighth part is devoted to the study of the substitutability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is substitutable. The forty-ninth part is devoted to the study of the divisibility of the solution. It is shown that the solution is divisible. The fiftieth part is devoted to the study of the indivisibility of the solution. It is shown that the solution is indivisible. The fifty-first part is devoted to the study of the excludability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is excludable. The fifty-second part is devoted to the study of the non-excludability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is non-excludable. The fifty-third part is devoted to the study of the rivalry of the solution. It is shown that the solution is rivalrous. The fifty-four part is devoted to the study of the non-rivalry of the solution. It is shown that the solution is non-rivalrous. The fifty-fifth part is devoted to the study of the appropriability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is appropriable. The fifty-six part is devoted to the study of the non-appropriability of the solution. It is shown that the solution is non-appropriable. When the two booze artists awoke the next day the riot that ensued almost wrecked the tavern. Mr. Watson Huff believes that there is a connection between the Huffs or Houghs of Brant if this Obadiah of my record is the same man as in his records. He said he has never heard a Huff bearing that name and I must agree with him. My Dad said that the Huffs of Quinte are related to Bensons through the Wright family and I see the name of Sarah Wright and George Wright on the record of Obadiah Huff. The record states that Obadiah was born in Oct. 16, 1781, and died May. 9th, 1822, in Upper Canada. His first marriage was to Eunice Willand in Jan. 23, 1806. Second marriage was on Nov. 20, 1813, to Anne Mills who was born Sept. 19, 1792. Mr. Huff said that these dates are close to those in his records other than the name being spelled both "Hough" and "Huff". Can you enlighten me on this man Obadiah Huff? Do you think the Huffs from the Brant area are related to the Huffs of Quinte?

I shall have to have a photostat made of Obadiah's record and sent you for your purposes. His children by the first marriage are: Eli, Eunice, the second marriage: James, John, Peter, Henry, and then there are additions in very poor penmanship. "David Cullen" is added, with "mary"(no capitals), then "susan write", "Elisa Beth" wright" and "Edward". I don't know if you can make sense of this record. You will recall that Wright enters into the genealogy of the Huffs of Quinte and a chart of same hangs in the Toronto Branch office. I always like to be in a position to inform people of Loyalist history and of early settlement but in this case we enter an area of doubt. I would appreciate anything you could tell me of this Obadiah. You could have read "Valley of the Six Nations", University of Toronto Press, which mentions the Huff Grant at Cayuga. By the way, there was at one time a Huff's Corners at Toronto, Eglinton and Birchmount Aves. The Watson Huff I mention is a retired carriage-maker who cannot be a adolescent. He told me that one of the Huffs from Quinte said that his folks used to correspond with relatives in the U.S. but used the name "Hough".

I have just received the May issue of The Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey and I note that there are a number of Houghs named in a survey of the Frankford Plains Cemetery, Frankford Township, Sussex County, N.J., and about 8 Ruttans or "Rutan" as spelt in this case. A Benjamin Huff is named in the Greewich Township rateables of Sept. 1774.

Again, I would like to know anything about this mysterious Obadiah which in all probability is the same man in both instances. I have never clarified the Huff situation in my own mind. I have a tintype of a bearded man which my Dad said is "David Huff" but who was David Huff? There is some relationship between the Huffs and Bensons that is not recorded. My Mother is a Huff but she says her Father told them that Huffs(their branch) came from Pennsylvania and their grandfather was Ludwig but called himself "Bob". All this agrees with Mr. Edwin Huff Jr.'s account of how the original Huffs or Houghs left the New Amsterdam or New York area and moved north and south. He said whole towns moved to the new lands as did our U.E.L.s of Quebec's Eastern Townships move to the Canadian West.

Sincerely,

Kenneth A. Benson

P.S. That was a fine article you wrote for The Loyalist Gazette.

Say, that Miss Keech, Librarian at the Picton Library, has commission scripts of Garret and Jacob Benson and apparently she will not sell or give them to me. Could you obtain them or have photostats made for the museum? She said if a museum is ever founded in the area she would contribute them. Small wonder we U.E.s have little regard for the non-U.E.s.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Sorry, I was unable to give you more specific information about the maternal side of my family in my last letter. In the interim have been able to get a few given names of the Huffs.

The paternal side is quite definitely not M.E.L. The search for the Ball family tree must commence in England. George Washington's mother's maiden name was Mary Ball. She came from a wealthy British West Indies plantation family. The late Earl of Harewood, who married the deceased Princess Royal, was also descended from that family. Am quite convinced there is no relationship. The surname Ball, is derived from ancient Irish Gaelic, which means "hill" when denoting a persons place of residence.

My great-grand-father, Eliakim Huff, had sons Wilson and Wesley and daughters Martha Anne, Mary Jane and Adeline. To the best of my knowledge they were all born and died in the Hapanee area.

Very truly yours,

Edmund Ball

Dear Dr. Burleigh,-

I have a letter from Mrs. Hugh Spackman of 13 Sunray Crescent, Lambeth, Ontario, who is anxious to become a member of our Branch (she had been sent an application form by Mrs. C. S. Chard of Stirling).

Unfortunately she has very little information about her family. She says:

"my maiden name was Ethel Huff, born in North Adolphustown 1918. My father's name was William Anson Huff, born approximately 1854, died approximately 1940. Other members of my father's family were Charles, Thomas and George Huff, and Mary Jane Huff. We are descendants of Paul and Solomon Huff of Hay Bay district and as children often heard many stories of the U. E. L. experiences in that district."

She doesn't know her grandfather's name but his wife's name was Sills.

Mrs. Wanamaker is of the opinion that there are Huffs still living in the Hay Bay district. If this is the case have you any suggestion as to how she might find out the name of her grandparents and great grandparents? Would there be a register in a Methodist church in that district where her father's birth would be registered around 1854 which would of course give her grandparents' names? I thought you might know of someone in the neighborhood to whom she could write.

Sincerely,

Helen Fraleck

Dear Sir.

Would you kindly help me to establish my M.E.L. origin?

My mother's maiden name was Wales and her maternal grandparents' was Huff. To the best of my knowledge they were all born in the general area around Stapanee, Ontario.

Very truly yours,

The Huff Family

21 Hickson St.,
Toronto 3, Ontario.

The Editor,
The Picton Gazette,
Picton, Ontario.

The origins of the Huffs and the variations of the name are as much a mystery to the Huffs as to everyone else. A lady down in Natick, Mass., U.S.A., is working on the formation of a Huff family association but reports that all the Huffs who have written her to date know nothing about the Huffs. The attached sketch of the early Huffs in America was sent me by Edwin Huff, Jr., of the New Jersey Genealogical Society, in reply to my question: "Where did the Huffs come from?" I cannot find any proof that the Huffs are Huguenots. Mr. Huff states that he belongs to the Huguenot Society but that he used the line of descent from a Huguenot settler as qualification. I think it is more than chance that Paul and Solomon Huff lived on the same land, the estate of Widow Verplanck, as did the famous Englebert Huff, a native of Norway, who lived to the ripe old age of 128 years. A New York tourist publication of a few years back related how Englebert had been courting at the age of 125 and that his rival was 100 years his junior.

Sincerely,
Kenneth A. Benson.

THE HUFFS

Where did the Huffs come from? I believe it would be easier to answer this question: "Where didn't the Huffs come from?" My own line stems from an immigrant to New Amsterdam in 1651. He signed his will Paulus Dircks, sometimes this appears as Direksen, patronymic in either event, and never used the name Hoff at all. His son, Derrick Pauluzen, appears in Flushing, Long Island, N.Y., and is called the eldest son in his father's will of 1688. However when he reached N.J. he was using the name Derrick Hoff. His eldest son had preceeded him here, Pieter, and used but one "F" spelling it "Hof". Most of his grandsons entered Revolutionary War service as "Huff". This immigrant, Paulus Direks, first wife was Geertje Willemse, secondly he married Jannetje Jans. The son Derrick first married Eechijie Teunis (Covert); secondly, Sara Willemse Jeets (Yates). Derrick had a brother Paulus, bap. 3 Nov., 1655, whom I believe went up the Hudson and left progeny in and about Kingston, N.Y. The fact that this family used patronymics is a fair indication they were of Holland Dutch extraction. When the English took N.Y. in 1664 one of the problems was the lack of family names, especially on land transactions. If a father had six married sons they undoubtedly could have had Petersons, Johnsons, Tunisons, Dircksons, Albertsons, and Ruloffsons, all first cousins and all his grandchildren. I believe about 1700 it was compulsory to adopt a surname and stick with it. Almost of the same period came Laurens Jurianse to New Amsterdam. He was born in Brazil, South America, then a Dutch colony. Many of his progeny spelled the name "Huff" on Long Island, N.Y., but here in N.J. it became "Hof" and "Huff". I have Elmer Hough's book on his family. They stem from a Richard Hough, intimate of William Penn and Member of his Council. He was naturally an English Quaker. The book believes the family originated in South Holland and came into England at the time of William the Conqueror. Others believe they came into England with the Norman Invasion using the name of De La Hoogh.

My own theory is this: There is a small village in Germany named "Hof" and that near the close of the Thirty Years War my people fled into Holland, possibly could have been Norway or Denmark, thence over here. This is pure conjecture. I found the story of Englebert Huff some years ago in Benson J. Lossing's Pictorial Field Book of The American Revolution, Vol. No. 2, page 124, in which it mentions a silver tankard that was presented to Fishkill (N.Y.) Dutch Reformed Church by Samuel Verplanck "to commemorate Mr. Englebert Huff, by birth a Norwegian, in his life-time attached to the life guards of the Prince of Orange, afterward King William III of England. He resided a number of years in this country, and died, with unblemished reputation, at Fishkill, 21st of March, 1765, aged 128 years". I believe there were descendants of the Palatine Immigration, Adam Hoff by name, in and around Livingston Manor, N.Y. Possibly the present Governor of The State of Vermont, Philip Hoff, may be of that family. There have been several migrations from this area. Whole villages nearly transported themselves to Western Pennsylvania, later to Kentucky, Carolina, and further west and south. There was yet a mass exodus to the Lake Country of New York State. I have read that Col. Roger's own life and that of his men was saved by a Capt. Huff of the Rangers. A correspondent in Michigan who descends from the N.J. Huffs tells me her father's brother helped capture Jefferson Davis. Most of my Huff line weren't exactly in favor of the treatment the South received in that conflict. That was true of N.J. for both times Lincoln failed to receive a majority of the popular vote. There were some 4,000 slaves in N.J. as late as 1860.

HAROLD HUFF

The death occurred at Kingston General Hospital, of Harold Huff, 61, of R.R. 2, Napanee. The funeral was held at St. Luke's Anglican Church, Camden East, with interment at St. Luke's Cemetery.

The late Mr. Huff was a well-known resident of this area and leaves his wife, the former Agnes Robinson, and two sons and a daughter, Walter Huff, of Millhaven, and Harold Huff, at home, and Mrs. Lawrence McLaughlin (Dorothy), of Kingston.

He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Kenneth Martin and Mrs. Arthur Burt, and two brothers, Clifford Huff and F. Erwell Huff, reeve of Ernestown Township, all of Wilton.

Also surviving are three grandsons, Dennis Huff and Terry and Tony McLaughlin.

The late Harold Walter Huff lived on Hamburg Rd. near Napanee and suffered a heart attack at the home of his sister, Mrs. Kenneth Martin, Wilton, and was rushed to hospital by ambulance but died before arrival.

He was born in Ernestown, eldest son of the late James Huff, and his wife, the former Margaret Reid, and had lived near Yarker most of his life, until moving to the Napanee district seven years ago. He had been a carpenter for the past 32 years and was widely - known in this area. He belonged to St. Thoms Anglican Church at Morven, where he had been a warden for the past six years, and he was also a member of Cataraqui I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 10, for a number of years and a great many members gathered at his late residence for the Odd-fellow service.

The funeral was held from his late residence to St. Luke's Anglican Church, Camden East, where deceased had been a faithful member and worked for many years, and was conducted by Canon A. G. Wakelin, Rev. Lyman Coleman and Rev. L. G. O. Walker.

Pall - bearers were Richard Hill, Douglas Reid, Raymond Myers, Harold Creighton, Gerald Galt, and Bruce Cuthill.

Deaths and Funerals

HANSON D. HUFF

PICTON — One of Picton's best known and popular businessmen, Hanson D. Huff, died in Kingston General Hospital after a short illness. He was 62.

Mr. Huff had resided in Picton since 1927, and in January 1928, he went into partnership with H. S. Colliver in the coal business and feed mill. Earlier, the firm had been known as Way and Colliver and as the W. H. Lake Company.

Few men of the town had a greater number of friends. He was always pleasant and obliging, and many paid tribute to him.

Born in Hallowell Township, Mr. Huff was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Huff. His brother, Harold, resides on the homestead, being the fourth generation there. The farm was first owned by his grandfather's uncle, William Moore Huff, who settled there in 1802; his grandfather, and his father, both named Elisha Huff, resided there. Mr. Huff's great grandfather, Solomon Huff, was the first white settler on Huff's Island, about 1800.

Mr. Huff resided on a farm on Jericho street before moving to Picton. He did not seek public office but gave his support to community endeavors.

He was a member of the board of Picton United Church, and of Prince Edward Lodge, No. 18, AF and AM, and the chapter. He belonged to the Shrine Club at Belleville, and was a member of Prince Edward Yacht Club.

Survivors are his wife, formerly Emma Noxon; a son, Donald; two daughters, Mrs. A. B. Olding (Marion), Guelph, and Mrs. Oliver Lawrence (Beatrice), Greenwood, NS; two brothers, Harold, Christian street, and Floyd, Detroit.

The body rested at the funeral home of G. M. Hicks and Son until Monday when it was taken to Picton United Church.

Mention was made by the officiating clergyman, Rev. A. E. McCutcheon, of the representatives from all walks of life present at the service later. There was a large representation of the Masonic Order who carried out their service in the church. Interment was in Glenwood Vault.

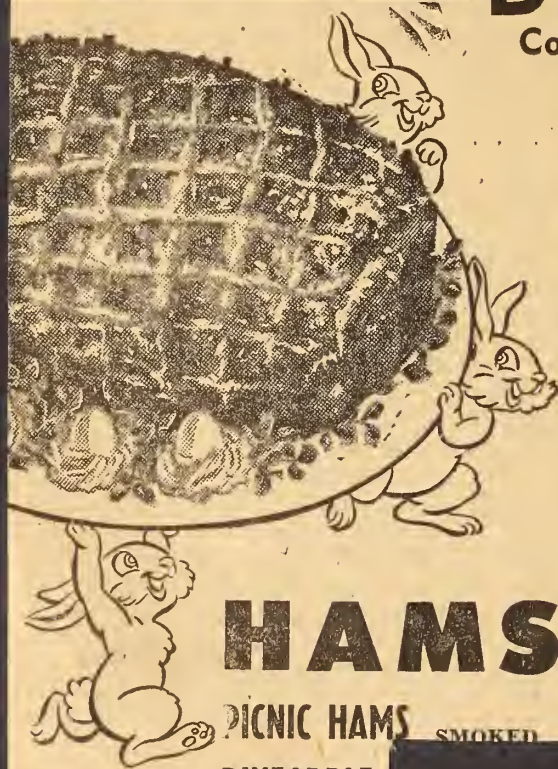

Pall-bearers were H. M. Pyne, Earl S. Benson, Howard Leavens, K. I. Mitchell, Clare Pearsoll and Hilton McCartney.

Personal Notes.

The Huffs.

The Huffs.---Solomon Huff first drew a lot on Hay Bay shore, near No. 1, but when that was made a part of Fredericksburg Additional he gave up and accepted a lot in second concession distant from the Bay, which was then of much value, so as to be in the same township as the other fourth town Residents. Paul Huff, son of Solomon, was a leading and well known farmer on Hay Bay. It was in his house that the first Methodist Class was formed in the Province, by William Losee in 1791. It was on his farm that the first Methodist Church in Upper Canada was built. It was in his barn that the first Quarter Sessions in the Midland District was held, in the summer of 1794, the next being held at Kingston, and then in the Methodist Church until a Court House was erected. There was a large family of well-to-do and quiet farmers, taking a prominent part in Methodist Church affairs, but not much in political concerns. None of the name now reside in the township. Several are in Prince Edward. A sister married----- Allison, the father of Joseph B., and another Jacob Dulmage, who moved to Maryburg, Prince Edward County. A number of the descendants still remain but are scattered.

Douglas Sprague a great great grandson of Paul Huff U.E.L. settler on the south shore of Hay Bay in 1784, conducted a lengthy research into the origin and descendants of the Huguenot ancestors of the Huff family

The first known Huff came to America prior to 1707, in the person of Engelbert Huff, a Norwegian member of the Life Guards of William of Orange, who became King William III of England

Soon after his arrival in America he married Maria (Maritie) Willems born about 1690 at Tarrytown, N.Y., to Robert Willems Zen and Grace (Greesze) Cerant (believed to have been the early spelling of Ceniff or Canniff). Engelbert Huff died at the ripe old age of 128 years on March 21st 1765 at Fishkill, N.Y., and was buried near the east wall of the Reformed Dutch Church at nearby Hopewell.

The known family of Engelbert and Maria:-

Greesze 1708, married Zibout Crancheyt; Leonhardt 1709, married 1) Pheoebe Ferris, 2) Cornelia VanTassel; Maria 1712; William 1714, married Elizabeth Retan; Ann Margareta 1716; Helena 1717; Mara 1724; Johanis 1726; Abraham 1729.

The family of William and Elizabeth Retan Huff:-

Paul; Solomon; John; Angus; (and possibly a daughter Angel)

Byron M. Wylie another great great grandson of Solomon Huff, U.E.L., younger brother of Paul Huff, claims to have uncovered a record showing that Solomon Huff came with his wife and six eldest children to Canada immediately after the July 4th 1776 Declaration of Independence, making his way overland to Fort Frontenac (Kingston), thence the following summer to 4th Town (Adolphustown) and there "squatted" on land close by the bay shore.

The foregoing paragraph is at variance with other historical accounts of the coming to Canada of the two (Paul and Solomon) Huff families, as set out in the following manner

Lieut. Paul Huff served with the Loyalists in Colonel Horton's company. He was officially mustered out at Kingston in October 1784. With his wife (whose name is not available) and at least five of their ~~ten~~ children, Paul Huff left New York in the fall of 1783 aboard ship for refuge in Canada. They spent a very discouraging winter at Sorel, Quebec, came through to Kingston in the spring and finally arrived at Adolphustown June 16th 1784. Their party was under direction of Major Peter VanAlstine. Their family were:

Their genealogy follows;f

Solomon Huff 1751-1828 was married to Eva Swade 1757- in close proximity to the present site of New York City. At the outbreak of the War of 1766-1783 Solomon is reported to have owned and operated a farm of 200 acres on land now a part of that great city. Unlike his brothers, Solomon was a neutral until a rebel raiding party pillaged his farm and property. He then joined the British troops and served through the duration. It is said he procured an old bald-faced horse which helped him to remove his family and goods to Kingston, later proceeding to Adolphustown, where he drew a lot on Hay Bay shore but exchanged it for one in the second concession in order to remain in 4th Town. The family of Solomon and Eva were: Jane; Elizabeth; William; Catharine; Sarah; Richard; Mary; Peter; Solomon.
